
Prior to his positions in Washington, Dr. Hunt was Distinguished Consultant and Director of the Division of Injury Response at the National Center for Injury Prevention Control at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

He received a Bachelor of Science from Furman University, a Master of Science in Anatomy from the Medical University of South Carolina, and his medical degree from Brody School of Medicine in Greenville, North Carolina. He completed his residency in Emergency Medicine at Wright State University School of Medicine where he served as Chief Resident. He is board certified by the American Board of Emergency Medicine.

Topic: “Life Lessons From the ER”

Time: 11:00a.m - 12:00p.m.

Date: February 17th, 2015

Place: James B. Williams School of Medicine Building (Auditorium 110)