Thea James, MD, is an Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine at Boston Medical Center/Boston University School of Medicine, and immediate past president of the Medical and Dental Staff at Boston Medical Center. She is an Assistant Dean in the Office of Diversity and Multicultural Affairs, and the Director of the Violence Intervention Advocacy Program at Boston Medical Center. Dr. James is a founding member of the National Network of Hospital-Based Violence Intervention Advocacy Programs (NNHVIP). She serves on the Steering Committee and the Research Group of NNHVIP. In October 2011, Dr. James was appointed to Attorney General Eric Holder’s National Task Force On Children Exposed To Violence. The task force report was released and presented to the Attorney General in December 2012.

Dr. James has chaired and served on national committees within the Society for Academic Emergency Medicine (SAEM), served as a moderator, and has given multiple public and academic lectures and talks. She was appointed to the SAEM Women in Academic Emergency Medicine Task Force. She is a member of the Boston University School of Medicine Admissions Committee. In 2009, Dr. James was appointed to the Massachusetts Board of Registration in Medicine, where she served as chair of the Licensing Committee. Dr. James is the 2008 awardee of the Boston Public Health Commission’s Mulligan Award for public service. In February 2012, she was a recipient of the Suffolk County District Attorney’s Role Model Award. In 2012, The Boston Business Journal honored Dr. James with its Health Care Hero Award.

Topic: “Treating Urban Violence: Transforming Vulnerable Moments into Opportunity, Impact and Positive Outcome”

Time: 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

Date: October 22nd, 2013

Place: Steiner Auditorium, Grady Campus